
CALL FOR PAPERS

22nd Annual Arkansas College Art History Symposium at the University of Central Arkansas March 8 & 9, 2012

Abstract Deadline: Monday, February 6

Students from all Arkansas colleges and universities are invited to submit proposals for papers to be read at the Twenty-second Annual Arkansas College Art History Symposium, at the University of Central Arkansas in Conway. Proposals are welcome on any topic within the field of art history and typically reflect work done in a recent undergraduate art history course. Presentations will be twenty minutes.

Please send a 300-word abstract with your contact information, by Monday, February 6, 2012, to:

Dr. Dito Morales
UCA Art Department
201 Donaghey Ave., MAC 101
Conway, AR 72035
or
RMorales@uca.edu

Our guest scholar this year is Dr. Kevin Concannon, Professor of Art History (Contemporary, Modern), and Director of the School of Visual Arts (College of Architecture and Urban Studies) at Virginia Tech. His scholarship focuses on art of the 1960s, particularly the work of Yoko Ono. Concannon is also active in the Scholarship of Teaching, Assessment, and Learning (SoTAL) contributing to and chairing panels on pedagogy issues at professional conferences, including the College Art Association.*

The symposium (March 9) and guest lectures (March 8 & 9) will take place in the Art Lecture Hall, McCastlain 143 (next to the Baum Gallery). All activities are free and open to the public.

Sponsored by The University of Central Arkansas with assistance from The University of Arkansas at Little Rock, and funded by UCA arts fees. For more information please contact Dito Morales (RMorales@uca.edu).
