

Retention

Note: All standards with respect to retention are binding and are not, therefore, subject to appeal.

Maintenance of Standards. The university reserves the right to deny further attendance to a student who lacks the personal qualities, professional characteristics, or scholastic attainments essential for success. Such a student desiring to re-enroll will supply the university with evidence that the difficulties have been corrected.

In addition to the completion of prescribed courses, the student must meet established scholarship standards for continuation in the university.

A student is placed on academic probation whenever their semester grade point average is less than 2.0. A student will be removed from academic probation whenever their semester grade point average reaches or exceeds 2.0 and their cumulative grade point average is at least a 2.0.

A student on academic probation who does not achieve a 2.0 semester grade point average the semester following academic probation and does not meet the minimum cumulative average listed below will be academically suspended. The calculation of GPA hours will include grades A, B, C, D, F, and WF.

Semester GPA Hours	Minimum Cumulative GPA
1 - 30	1.70
31 - 59	1.85
60 or more	2.00

A student on suspension from the University may apply for readmission under the Schedule of Readmission following academic suspension. Credit earned at another institution while on academic suspension will not transfer back to the university and will not count toward a degree at the university.

Schedule of Readmission Following Suspension

First Suspension: Students who are on first academic suspension are eligible for readmission after one academic semester on suspension and approval of their Application for Readmission or they may petition for immediate conditional readmission through the UCAN (Unlocking College Academics Now) Program. If granted immediate readmission, the student is considered "on suspension with conditional enrollment." Contact the Office of the Registrar for more information.

Students placed on first academic suspension following the fall semester will be eligible for summer enrollment at the university following the spring semester.

Second Suspension: Students who are on second suspension will be granted automatic readmission after one calendar year on suspension and approval of their Application for Readmission.

Third Suspension: Students on third suspension are subject to academic dismissal from the University for an indefinite period of time.
