

Calling all progressive parents and grandparents!! Give the children in your life the advantage they will need to enter the global workforce of tomorrow. All the new brain research tells us that young children are language sponges—they pick up accents, vocabulary, and grammar effortlessly. UCA has prepared after-school classes which will immerse your children in the targeted language through songs, games, skits, and other creative activities. Your children may thank you for it..... in another language!

See our website: www.uca.edu/wlan for policies & calendar information
