

Spanish Graduate Faculty

- Dr. Sheree Henlon
Ph.D., Univ. of Iowa
Caribbean Studies
shenlon@uca.edu
- Dr. Jennifer Patterson Parrack
Ph.D., Univ. of Pennsylvania
Contemporary Literature and Cultures of Spain
jparrack@uca.edu
- Dr. John Parrack
Ph.D., Univ. of Pennsylvania
Spanish Linguistics and Early Modern Literature
johncp@uca.edu
- Dr. Joel Pouwels
Ph.D., Michigan State U.
Twentieth-Century Spanish-
American Literature
joelp@uca.edu
- Dr. Jaime Zambrano
Ph. D., Univ. of Missouri
Contemporary Spanish-
American Literature
jaimez@uca.edu
- Mrs. Patricia Carlin
M.A., Univ. of California, Davis
Second Language Education
pcarlin@uca.edu

Visit our department website for further information on our programs and faculty:
<http://www.uca.edu/wlan/spanishma.shtml>

For more information, contact:

M. A. in Spanish Graduate Program
Dept. of World Languages, Literatures, and Cultures
University of Central Arkansas
201 Donaghey Ave.
Conway, AR 72035
(501) 450-3168
<http://www.uca.edu/wlan/spanishma.shtml>

Graduate Coordinator: Dr. Jennifer Parrack (501) 450-5697 jparrack@uca.edu	Department Chair: Dr. Phillip Bailey (501) 450-5645 phillipb@uca.edu
---	---

For information on admissions, graduate assistantship application and GRE requirements, visit the UCA graduate school website:
<http://www.uca.edu/divisions/academic/graduate/>

COURSE OFFERINGS FOR 2008-2009

Summer I, 2009

SPAN 6395 Renaissance and Baroque Theatre

Summer II, 2009

Study Abroad in Madrid, Spain and San José, Costa
Rica through MLSA

Fall 2009

SPAN 5340 History of the Spanish Language (Core)

SPAN 6335 Colombian Novel

SPAN 6395 Women's Literature of Spain

WLAN 5315 Methods of Teaching Second Languages

WLAN 5330 Second Language Assessment

Spring 2010

SPAN 5345 Spanish-American Masterpieces (Core)

SPAN 6330 Hispanic Author Seminar: Galdós

SPAN 6396 or 6395 TBA (new faculty)

WLAN 5325 Second Language Acquisition

M.A. in Spanish

Master of Arts in Spanish

The M. A. in Spanish at the University of Central Arkansas is a graduate program that provides a unique opportunity to improve your proficiency in Spanish language and Hispanic cultures. Designed for students with an undergraduate degree in Spanish, the M.A. program offers courses that will broaden your expertise in Spanish language, culture, and literature while also bringing you up to date with contemporary issues in Hispanic studies. Whether you use Spanish in the workplace or the classroom, this graduate program will challenge you to achieve greater cultural and linguistic fluency.

Program Objectives

The Master of Arts degree in Spanish is designed to provide professionals with the opportunity to study Spanish language and Hispanic cultures and literatures at an advanced level. Graduates will acquire cross-cultural competencies that will serve them in a variety of career options, including education, business, and public service. All graduates will attain advanced-high level proficiency in the four skills assessed according to the standards set by the American Council of Teachers of Foreign Languages (ACTFL).

General Program Information

To enter the program, you must have completed an undergraduate degree with a major in Spanish, its equivalent, or supplementary undergraduate coursework as designated by the Graduate Coordinator and Department Chair.

Part-time and full-time students are welcome. Classes are offered in the late afternoons and evenings, as well as in summer. Study abroad opportunities are also available in the summer months.

In-service teachers may use graduate coursework towards their Professional Development requirement (1 graduate course = 15 PD hours)

Certified teachers may take advantage of the course offerings to add an ESL or P-8 endorsement.

Graduate assistantships and opportunities to teach in our undergraduate program are available. Application deadline for assistantships is

May 1, 2009.

See the M.A. website for details and application.

Program Requirements

The M. A. in Spanish program requires 30 hours of graduate coursework, divided as follows:

9 hours of "Core" Courses: SPAN 5315 (Spanish Literature and Culture), SPAN 5345 (Span. American Literature and Culture), and SPAN 5340 (History of the Spanish Language). These three courses form the basis for the study of contemporary issues in Hispanic Studies and for the Comprehensive Exams.

21 hours of electives, with least 15 hours at the 6000-level. These may include study abroad, independent studies, or a master's thesis, as well as elective courses. Recent and future topics for elective courses include:

- Intro. to Caribbean Literature
- Spanish Civil War in Film, Art, and Literature
- Violence in the Spanish-American Novel
- Introduction to Spanish Linguistics
- Gabriel García Márquez
- Spanish Women's Literature
- Contemporary Spanish Film
- Cervantes: Don Quijote
- Colombian Novel
- Issues in Contemporary Spanish Society and Culture
- Cuban Anti-Slavery Narratives
- Postmodern Spanish Novel

3 hours of other graduate courses may apply towards the degree. Depending on the student's interests, these may include courses for the ESL endorsement, such as WLAN 5330 WLAN 5315, and WLAN 5325, as well as graduate courses in English and History.

To earn the M.A., degree candidates must also pass a comprehensive examination (with oral and written components), and meet the language proficiency objectives of the program.